

Project Superintendent / Project Manager

Air Specialty, Inc.

Job Description:

- We are seeking an experienced project superintendent / project manager who has understanding of marine/industrial HVAC work.
- Duties include accountability for the successful performance of assigned projects.
- The candidate will be responsible for the financial results of the projects and scope expansion through the securing of change orders, where appropriate.
- Qualified candidate must be able to excel in a fast-paced environment, think quickly on their feet, and possess problem solving skills.
- Applicants must be organized and demonstrate leadership to direct report employees, subcontractors, vendors, and our customers.
- Salaried full-time position. Salary to be determined based on experience, etc.
- Competitive project performance incentive program.
- Relocation package is available to qualified candidate.
- Projects will primarily be in the Mobile, Gulf Coast area.
- Responsibilities to hire, train, motivate and terminate when necessary, project personnel. Trains and supervises the day to day project technicians on assigned job sites.
- Conducts construction conferences and walkthroughs with customers as assigned.
- Is responsible for ensuring safe work practices on all assigned projects. Must demonstrate leadership in the compliance with the "Air Specialty, Inc." safety and health policies. Must understand and comply with all OSHA job site requirements.

About Air Specialty, Inc.

Air Specialty, Inc. is a Mechanical Contractor and Service Company located in Mobile Alabama, specializing in commercial, industrial and marine projects. We are looking for enthusiastic individuals who share our excitement in growing the company. For more information on Air Specialty, Inc. visit our web site: <http://air-specialty.com/main.htm>

Please email your resume to info@air-specialty.com and put the word "resume" in the subject or fax to 251-649-0207 for confidential consideration.